Another interesting line of examination was opened up just before the adjournment for the day when John McGuinness, an employe of the Equitable Life was called. He produced letter books and memoranda which Mr. Hugher read and was in the midst of reading when adjournment was taken. These were instructions from former Compitroller Thomas D. Jordan of the Equitable Life to A. C. Fields, relative to the killing or assisting the passage of every bill introduced into the legislature that would affect or help the interests of the insurance company or any of its officers. This line of examination will be followed out when the sessions are resumed to-morrow.

In this proceeding the water works company brought suit in the Circuit Court of Hillsdale, Florida, to enjoin the city of Tampa from enforcing an ordinance reducing the rates for water supplied by the company. The company pleaded an unexpired thirty year contract, at fixed rates, of which it was claimed the ordinance was a violation, and therefore contrary to the Constitution. The ordinance was upheld by the Circuit Court and also by the State Supreme Court.
